An Act of Spiritual Communion

My Jesus, I believe that You are present in the Most Holy Sacrament.
 I love You above all things, and I desire to receive You into my soul. Since I cannot at this moment receive You sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart.

Pentecost Sunday -

As Christmas is the birth of Jesus, Pentecost is the birth of the Church.

“And when the days of Pentecost were drawing to a close, they were all together in one place. And suddenly there came a sound from heaven, as of a violent wind coming, and it filled the whole house where they were sitting. And there appeared to them parted tongues as of fire, which settled upon each of them. And they were all filled with the Holy Spirit and began to speak in foreign tongues, even as the Holy Spirit prompted them to speak “(Acts 2, 1-4).

How did the first Christians prepare? They were all "in prayer" .. and they were "all of one mind," under the leadership of Peter, making ready to tell "men from every nation under heaven. . .of the wonderful works of God"(Epistle)..

As Catholics we forget that we too received the gifts of the Holy Spirit at baptism and again at confirmation. We need to be reminded that we the baptized are called to the mission of evangelization.

Let us all pray then for a double portion of the graces, gifts and charismas of the Holy Spirit and to discover what it is that God is calling us to do with those gifts.

“All things are possible to God”

“In these days of great anxiety and hardship, many have used war-like metaphors to refer to the pandemic we are experiencing. If the struggle against COVID-19 is a war, then you are truly an invisible army, fighting in the most dangerous trenches; an army whose only weapons are solidarity, hope, and community spirit, all revitalizing at a time when no one can save themselves alone.” Pope Francis
