Reflection:

As a Catholic, I believe in God. But where is He?
Thanks to the writings of Jesuit priest Fr. Jean Pierre de Caussade (1675-1751), “Events in life are God’s invitations for us to come closer to Him. These are our opportunities to change so that we will become holy like His Son in the end. Only when we practice the art of genuine love can we live in Heaven on Earth”.

However, we are not alone in the process. God sends help. The breath that the world is experiencing today, I believe, is not the breath of death. Instead, it is the breath of the Holy Spirit. It is the breath of life that helps us re-create ourselves and the world.

The Holy Spirit is breathing into us His gifts of wisdom to know the truth, of humility to accept it, of courage to fight for it and of sense of awe to be able to kneel before the truth — God.

As the Catholic churches in Canada start to open again, may we become sensitive to the Holy Spirit. May we let it permeate all areas of our lives to make them consistent with God’s teachings.

In his homily, Pope Francis said, "The Lord, offering himself to us in the simplicity of bread, also invites us not to waste our lives in chasing the myriad illusions that we think we cannot do without, yet that leave us empty within." Just as the Eucharist satisfies the hunger for material things, it also kindles the desire to serve others, "It raises us from our comfortable and lazy lifestyle and reminds us that we are not only mouths to be fed, but also his hands to be used to help feed others." "It is especially urgent now to take care of those who hunger for food and for dignity, those without work and those who struggle to carry on," "This we must do in a real way, as real as the bread that Jesus gives us," and with real solidarity and genuine closeness.

We pray that all those who suffer may find their way in life, allowing themselves to be touched by the Heart of Jesus.

St. Jude
Prayer for Fathers

Loving God, giver of all good gifts, you show us your love in the gift of our fathers. Bless them with your spirit of wisdom, and give them the grace to set a loving example for us through their faith. St. Jude, you too led a life of selfless service and fruitful love. Guide our fathers through your intercession. Give them strong conviction, renewed hope, and perfect charity; so they may teach with authority, comfort us when we falter, and anchor our families in your love. Amen.
