Canadian Food For Children News: SHOEBOXES

Due to COVID-19 we are unable to work together at Church to make up the annual shoeboxes. Instead of bringing articles for the shoeboxes it would be appreciated if parishioners would make a monetary donation this year, please place your funds in the collection basket marked (CFFC- shoeboxes).

If anyone has articles for shoeboxes, please bring them to church and we will save them for next years boxes. Also, if you normally prepare your own shoeboxes and wish to donate, we will gratefully accept them. Please bring completed boxes marked girl/boy and size to church no later than November 21/22. Boxes will then be delivered to the warehouse for shipping. Boxes can be dropped off during office hours as well.

Praying the Rosary with the Legion of Mary. Show your faith by praying the Rosary in front of Cambridge City Hall on Saturday mornings at 9:00am. All are welcome. Safety protocols must be followed: Masks & Social Distancing

ANOTHER WAY OF GIVING... As the new church year approaches we would like to encourage parishioners to consider E-Offertory, a safe, secure, convenient and flexible way to support our parish. E-Offertory allows you to give directly from your bank without the need of an envelope, cheque or cash. E-Offertory can be set up conveniently on your terms and can be cancelled at any time. All information is kept confidential and changes can be made quickly and easily. For E-Offertory information, please call the parish office or pick up the form which is located across from the parish hall.

40 Days for Life

40 Days for Life will be holding a Campaign of prayer, fasting and prayerful witness beginning September 23 ending on November 1. Daily hours are from 7am until 7pm. The location is as in previous years across from Freeport Hospital. We are asking that you prayerfully consider signing up for one hour per week or as you are able at www.40daysforlife.com/kitchener or call Patrick/Rita at 519-748-5548 for more info.

The Gospel is from Matthew 22:34-40. The Pharisees may not have had evil intentions when asking Christ the question as to the greatest commandment. But they have done us a good service by getting this crystal clear answer from him. In this answer he tells us that the man who loves God and neighbour fulfills all his obligations, and carries out all the duties that God's self-revelation in "the law and the prophets" imposes on him. God revealed himself to us in the Old Testament as our Creator and divine benefactor.

Where Christians can, and too often do fail, is in their true love of neighbor. Yet Christ says that this commandment is like the first. Love of neighbor is an essential part of our obligations toward God. If we fail in this we fail in our love for God, for we refuse to carry out this sacred duty. If we do not recognize our neighbour as our brother, we do not recognize God as our Father and we do not love him. As St. John puts it: "Anyone who says 'I love God' and hates (does not love) his neighbour is a liar" (1 Jn.3: 20).

Let each one of us ask himself today, how seriously he takes this law of fraternal charity and how faithfully he carries it out. Not all of us may be able to give material help to a neighbour in need but the poorest of us can spare a kind word, an encouraging word, for a neighbour weighed down with cares and troubles. All of us can pray for a neighbour who needs spiritual and temporal help. Most of us can deny ourselves some unnecessary luxuries in order to give a needed loaf of bread to a hungry fellowman.

Remember that whatever spiritual or material help is given out of true charity to a neighbour in need, is given to God, and whatever is given to God is soundly invested in heaven, and heaven pays handsome dividends.

Book of Life

In our Catholic tradition, November is set aside as a month dedicated to the Souls in Purgatory. It is a time for us to reflect on our lives as a pilgrim journey to the Lord, as well as an opportunity to prayerfully remember our loved ones and friends who have gone before us. As a parish, we will highlight this month of grace by preparing our annual "Book of Life" into which we will place the names of our departed family and friends. Due to COVID restrictions we ask that all names be submitted by email to:

stgreg@rogers.com or placed in the collection plate. We will insure names are written into the 'Book of Life' to be remembered during masses in November.

We have loved Them during life,
let us not abandon Them

until we have conducted Them by our prayers into the House of the Lord. (Saint Ambrose)
