Never to late to pray to the Infant Jesus

We take your hand, O Jesus, Infant King and Prince of Peace

We let you hold us tight as we journey through the midnight cold.

We remain fascinated by your gaze, God's gaze upon us who are so little so unsure so afraid so in need of you.

We need you so much this year, Jesus, to comfort us in grief, encourage us in exhaustion strengthen us in anxious hours.

Before the world we proclaim ourselves to be yours... your voice to a world that longs for the melody of grace, your eyes for those who yearn to be seen with love and mercy, your touch for those who desire to know they are good and beautiful.

May we be your humble sign, Child Jesus, in a world of power and prestige.

What relief is your poverty

What joy to wash away violence with tenderness

What delight to know you've chosen us and sent us to your world.

Amen. Daughters of St. Paul

Mary of Nazareth

Don't miss this epic motion picture on the life of Mary, Mother of Christ, from her childhood through the Resurrection of Jesus. Actress Alissa Jung gives a beautiful, compelling, and inspiring portrayal of Mary.

Then he brought him to Jesus. Jesus looked at him and said, "You are Simon the son of John; you will be called Cephas"—which is translated Peter. John 1:42

In this passage, the Apostle Andrew brings his brother Simon to Jesus after telling Simon that he has found the Messiah. Jesus immediately receives them both as Apostles and then reveals to Simon that his identity will now be changed. He will now be called Cephas. "Cephas" is an Aramaic word that means "Rock." In English, this usually translated as "Peter."

When someone is given a new name, this often means that they are also given a new mission and new vocation in life. For example, in the Christian tradition, we receive new names at Baptism or Confirmation and when a man or woman becomes a monk or a nun, they often are given a new name to signify the new life they are called to live. Simon is given the new name of "Rock" because Jesus intends to make him the foundation of His future Church. This change in name reveals that Simon must become a new creation in Christ in order to fulfill his high calling.

So it is with each one of us. No, we may not be called to be the next pope or a bishop, but we are each called to become new creations in Christ and live new lives fulfilling new missions. And, in a sense, this newness of life must happen each and every day. We must daily strive to fulfill the mission that Jesus gives us in a new way every day.

Reflect, today, upon the fact that God invites you to live a new life of grace in Him. He has some new mission for you to daily fulfill and He promises to give you all you need to live it. Say "Yes" to the call He gives you and you will see incredible things happen in your life.

Lord Jesus, I do say "Yes" to You and to the calling that You have given to me. I accept the new life of grace that You have prepared for me and I willingly accept Your gracious invitation. Help me, dear Lord, to daily answer the glorious vocation to the life of grace I have been given. Jesus, I trust in You.

The month of January is dedicated to the Holy Name of Jesus, The first ten days of January fall during the liturgical season known as Christmas which is represented by the liturgical color white — the color of light, a symbol of joy, purity and innocence (absolute or restored). The remaining days of January are the beginning of Ordinary Time, which is represented by the liturgical color green. This symbol of hope is the color of the sprouting seed and arouses in the faithful the hope of reaping the eternal harvest of heaven, especially the hope of a glorious resurrection.
