Not too Late—Cans for Coins

Thanks to the many parishioners who have taken a Can. Wonderful response! However, cans are still available. For those who do not feel comfortable attending Mass in person because of COVID and are unable to pick up a Can, simply use any household container and achieve your almsgiving objective just the same. Thanks for your generosity and stay safe. Cans can be returned to the Church. Norbert

ANOTHER WAY OF GIVING... As the new church year approaches, we would like to encourage parishioners to consider E-Offertory, a safe, secure, convenient and flexible way to support our parish. E-Offertory allows you to give directly from your bank without the need of an envelope, cheque, or cash. E-Offertory can be set up conveniently on your terms and can be cancelled at any time. All information is kept confidential and changes can be made quickly and easily. For E-Offertory information, please call the parish office.

What are you doing for Lent?

Daily reflections for Lent

1. Let your fasting be seen only by the Father in heaven Mt 6:1-6, 16-18
2. Deny yourself, take up your cross and follow Jesus Luke 9:22-2
3. Free the oppressed; share your bread with the hungry Isaiah 58:1-9a
4. Jesus said, "I have come to call sinners to repentance." Luke 5:27-32
5. Worship the Lord your God and serve only him Matthew 4:1-11

REFLECTION:

He who loves his life loses it," this is a truth stated by Christ at the solemn moment when he was speaking of the purpose of his own painful death. He died so that we might live, not for sixty or even a hundred years on earth, but forever in heaven. We can, we know, lose the eternal life Christ won for us if we are too attached to our earthly life. If we love our own comforts, pleasures, temporal gains, our own worldly will, more than we love our unending, happy future, then we are loving our earthly lives wrongly, and we are gravely risking the loss of the future, true life.

If, on the other hand, we do our best to be faithful servants of Christ, we shall always judge all our actions with eternity in view. We can use the things of this life which God gives us, and still be close followers of Christ. The lawful possession of the goods of this world, the enjoyment of the licit pleasures of life, are allowed to the fervent Christian. If these possessions and pleasures are accepted with Christian gratitude, they will become stepping-stones that will help us across the river of life to our everlasting home beyond.

Each one of us should look fervently and devoutly on the crucifix today, and try to compare our willingness to suffer those crosses sent to us by God, with the crushing cross and passion our Savior Jesus Christ gladly accepted for us and not for his own sake. Do not let the conclusion you draw stun you into inactivity, but rather let it shock you into a new outlook on life; a new resolve to serve, follow and imitate our loving Christ more closely in future. So may it be for all of us. Excerpted from The

March 2021—The Reel Justice Film Festival

A partnership between the Bishop Farrell Library and Development and Peace, the Reel Justice Film Festival shines a spotlight on issues of social, political, and economic injustice. Films are screened once a month and provide an opportunity for community discussion about ways we can all support actions for change. Details and full schedule can be found at reeljusticefilmfestival.wordpress.com.

All of the films will be available online. Special family-friendly screening March 25th, 6:30 pm – 8:00 pm - *To the Arctic, narrated by Meryl Streep. The film follows the lives of a mother polar bear and her twin seven-month-old cubs, as they navigate the changing Arctic wilderness.

RSVP online @ library@hamiltondiocese.com. John the discussion!

Pornography: The Threat, Impact, and Catholic Remedy

Pornography is one of the most important issues to understand in our world today. Easily available on the internet, it affects people of all ages, backgrounds, male or female. Pornography today is violent and degrading and often involves young people who have been sex-trafficked.

Join us on Zoom (by internet or phone) on March 25th from 7-8:30 pm and hear more about the threat and impact of pornography on children and adults, how we can educate ourselves and our children to counter its negative influence and how our Catholic faith provides hope to those impacted. Presented by Mrs. Teresa Hartnett and Deacon Joseph Di Loreto. Registration required but the session is free of charge. <https://hamiltondiocese.com/offices/family-ministry/pornography-help>.

Please consider making a donation towards the Easter flowers. Place your donation in an envelope marked "Easter Decorations" and place it in the Sunday collection basket. To receive a tax receipt, please note your name and address on your envelope. Thank you.

Glorious Patriarch Saint Joseph, whose power makes the impossible possible, come to my aid in these times of anguish and difficulty. Take under your protection the serious and troubling situations that I commend to you, that they may have a happy outcome. My beloved father, all my trust is in you. Let it not be said that I invoked you in vain, and since you can do everything with Jesus and Mary, show me that your goodness is as great as your power. Amen.
Pope Francis
