St. Gregory prayer chain

As a faith community that recognizes God's blessing in our lives we come together in prayer for the needs of our community and for our world. Our prayer chain gives us the opportunity to pray in private and yet also as a united voice for those who may not have a voice.

For more information on how to be part of our prayer chain or if you would like your name or the name of a loved one added to our list please contact the office or let Deacon John know.

RETURN—Cans for Coins

Thanks to the many parishioners who have taken a Can. It is now time to return the Cans so they may be forwarded to their final destinations. Please leave them either in the collection baskets or return to the office. Norbert

Are YOU interested in being a Lector or Minister of Communion?

Do you feel that God is calling you to participate in the celebration of Holy Mass in either of these Liturgical Ministries? St. Gregory's is currently looking to "swell the ranks" by asking that you consider becoming a Lector or Minister of Communion. Training, both in our parish and through the Diocese will be provided. If you are interested please contact our parish office during regular office hours or speak to Fr. Malcolm or Deacon John after Mass. We'd love to have you become a part of our liturgical team!

The Divine Mercy message is one we can call to mind simply by remembering ABC:

A - Ask for His Mercy. God wants us to approach Him in prayer constantly, repenting of our sins and asking Him to pour His mercy out upon us and upon the whole world.

B - Be merciful. God wants us to receive His mercy and let it flow through us to others. He wants us to extend love and forgiveness to others just as He does to us.

C - Completely trust in Jesus. God wants us to know that all the graces of His mercy can only be received by our trust. The more we open the door of our hearts and lives to Him with trust, the more we can receive.

This message and devotion to Jesus as The Divine Mercy is based on the writings of Saint Faustina Kowalska, an uneducated Polish nun who, in obedience to her spiritual director, wrote a diary recording the revelations she received about God's mercy. Properly understood and implemented, they will help us grow as genuine followers of Christ. Spend time to learn more about the mercy of God, learn to trust in Jesus, and live your life as merciful to others, as Christ is merciful to you.

WHY@Breakfast invites you to an online presentation "The Call of Hope," on Saturday, April 17th, 2021, from 9:30 AM to noon. Our speaker, Sister Eileen Power, CND, has years of experience working as school chaplain, retreat facilitator, and spiritual director. She will be offering her insights on our call of hope at this pandemic time, leading us into a discussion, and offering practical exercises and suggestions for self-healing and for our response to that call. The online presentation will be delivered via Zoom. Registration for the presentation is free, but you may wish to consider donating to your favourite charity. You may also find additional information and register through the website <https://whyatbreakfast.com>.

A 30-MINUTE VIRTUAL PILGRIMAGE called

Triduum: A Spiritual Pilgrimage. This contemplative documentary cinematically walks through the locations of Holy Week and re-presents the most important days of human history.

Easter is a time of joy and thanksgiving. Whatever we may be going through – personally, within our families, or as a global community – Easter is a time for us all to remember that Jesus Christ has conquered sin and death once and for all. He has reunited us with the Father and shown us the path to Heaven. So let us rejoice! For we are all called to partake of this promise. This Easter, let's share with others the reason for our joy and our hope.

In this world, there are so many people who don't know the love of Christ or the promise that awaits us. And we don't have to go far to find them. They are our friends and neighbours, our family members and our coworkers.

Like the sower in Jesus' parable, we are spreading the seeds of faith on many different types of soil. For those who have taken God's promise to heart, it is up to us to nurture those seeds of faith in others.

"But the seed sown on rich soil is the one who hears the word and understands it, who indeed bears fruit and yields a hundred or sixty or thirtyfold."

– Matthew 13:23

May we transform lives and create a better world.
