The month of May is the month which the piety of the faithful has especially dedicated to Our Blessed Lady, and the occasion for a moving tribute of faith and love in every part of the world pray to the Queen of Heaven. During this month Christians, both in church and in the privacy of the home, offer up to Mary from their hearts an especially fervent and loving homage of prayer and veneration. In this month, too, the benefits of God's mercy come down to us from her throne in greater abundance" (Paul VI: Encyclical on the Month of May, no. 1). See back of bulletin for a prayer.

If then you remain constant in your faith in the face of trial, the Lord will give you peace and rest for a time in this world, and forever in the next.

Pope Francis once said, “No act of virtue can be great if it is not followed by advantage for others. So, no matter how much time you spend fasting, no matter how much you sleep on a hard floor and eat ashes and sigh continually, if you do no good to others, you do nothing great.” It reminds me of Matthew’s blistering attack on hypocrites. “Beware of practicing your piety before others in order to be seen by them; for then you have no reward from your Father in Heaven.” He goes on to say, “whenever you give alms, do not sound a trumpet before you” (Matt 6:1-2).

What then will be the result of the sacrifice we have made during this pandemic — the sleeping on the hard floor that so many have done by closing shops, restaurants, etc.? When we wake from this distress, will we be more caring and attentive or will we merely cast the lessons we have learned aside as though waking from an unwanted dream? Because make no mistake: lessons were delivered.

We saw the importance of resiliency. We witnessed true courage from front-line workers. We watched as families agreed to stay apart so that our society could be safe. We learned how valuable our everyday connections and how much we missed them.

Above all, many of us were shocked to see how vulnerable our nations were, how hospital rooms filled to critical capacity and churches closed their doors.

Hopefully, we saw beyond the impact of our privilege to see the ravages this illness had on the poor, those on the margins and without resources, in homeless shelters, in remote communities, in developing countries. Seeing this, will we wake to take a different path? Not just awaken with a spring in our step and relief that we have made it through alive, but rise to be more compassionate, more caring, more engaged and connected and alert to the needs of the other after a time when we ourselves were alone.

This it seems to me is the critical next step when we awaken. To see the day not as it was before, but as something better that we ourselves have a responsibility to create. This is the new dawn Easter promises that we should welcome with open arms. No social distancing required.

Listen to: Paul J. Kim who uses humor and personal stories to reveal how Christians are beloved sons and daughters of the Father in this engaging, entertaining, and inspiring talk Jesus portrayed Himself as the Good Shepherd — the one who does not run away and is definitely not in it for himself. He laid down His life for the flock and continues to do so. Jesus should be the focus of our trust for He will never let us down.

May is Mental Health Awareness Month.

Start the Conversations about Mental Health Wednesday, May 5, 2021 11 am. MT

One in four people will be affected by a mental health problem at some point in their lives, yet the stigma surrounding mental illness silences many.

The Sanctuary Course for Catholics, an 8 session course streaming on FORMED.ORG—explores the realities of mental health and illness. The sessions are accompanied by compelling films that feature the stories of Catholics living with mental health challenges, along with the insights of archbishops, theologians, and psychologists.

Register now @ augustineinstitute.org or stream through FORMED.ORG or Brian Truckenbrod will host a conversation featuring insights, recommendations for addressing these critical issues.

An Act of Consecration to the Blessed Virgin Mary

Holy Mary, Mother of God and Virgin, I choose thee this day for my queen, patron, and advocate, and firmly resolve and purpose never to abandon thee, never to say or do anything against thee, nor to permit that aught be done by others to dishonor thee. Receive me, then, I conjure thee, as thy perpetual servant; assist me in all my actions, and do not abandon me at the hour of my death. Amen. — St. John Berchmans
