The Solemnity is also the World Day of Prayer for Priests. Wednesday, June 2nd, is a day of preparation for the Novena which begins June 3rd. The brief daily prayer provides opportunity to bring personal intentions before the Lord. The Novena can be found on our www.hamiltondiocese.com website

Thank you!

The feast of the Most Holy Trinity may well be regarded as the Church's Te Deum of gratitude over all the blessings of the Christmas and Easter seasons; for this mystery is a synthesis of Christmas, Epiphany, Easter, Ascension and Pentecost. This feast, which falls on the first Sunday after Pentecost, should make us mindful that actually every Sunday is devoted to the honor of the Most Holy Trinity, that every Sunday is sanctified and consecrated to the triune God. Sunday after Sunday we should recall in a spirit of gratitude the gifts which the Blessed Trinity is bestowing upon us.

The Father created and predestined us; on the first day of the week He began the work of creation. The Son redeemed us; Sunday is the "Day of the Lord," the day of His resurrection. The Holy Spirit sanctified us, made us His temple; on Sunday the Holy Spirit descended upon the infant Church. Sunday, therefore, is the day of the Most Holy Trinity.

Excerpted from The Church's Year of Grace, Pius Parsch

The very important task that Jesus wants us to undertake even with our human weakness is for us to spread His Gospel to the whole world.

After realizing that Jesus resurrected and is alive, Thomas said to Jesus, “My Lord and my God.” These words transformed Thomas from a dis-believer to a believer in the risen Christ. So, the pronouncement we make from our hearts through the mouth are very strong.

Let us today say like Thomas, ‘My Lord and my God’ in every difficult situation where we find ourselves doubting the power of Jesus Christ. Jesus will always reveal Himself to us both in our strongest and weakest points in our day to day life.

Love Our Lady. And she will obtain abundant grace to help you conquer in your daily struggle. St. Josemaria Escriva

May 30, 2021

This may be a little late "out of season" but I had to share.

Howard Thurman who said,
"When the song of the angels is stilled,
when the star in the sky is gone,
when the kings and princes are home,
when the shepherds are back with their flocks,
the work of Christmas begins:
to find the lost, to heal the broken,
to feed the hungry, to release the prisoner,
to rebuild the nations,
to bring peace among the people,
to make music in the heart."

If we prepare for the arrival of God in the world with the same level of seriousness as those who get the Christmas music going before Advent, then the arrival of Christmas cannot help but lead us into this work.

Instead of leaving us with an excess of waste and quickly forgotten trinkets, it leaves us ready to grow with the child Jesus in the work of the Gospel.
