Prayer for Father's Day

God our Father, in your wisdom and love you made all things. Bless those fathers who have taken upon themselves the responsibility of parenting.

Bless those who desire to be a father has not been realized.

Bless those who have lost a spouse to death or divorce or who are parenting their children alone.

Bless those who have been foster fathers or mentors. Strengthen each one by your love that they may be and become the loving, caring persons they are meant to be. Grant this through Christ, Jesus our Lord. Amen.

VATICAN CITY -- Because prayer is a dialogue with God, people should not dismiss or be embarrassed by saying their prayers out loud or in a whisper, Pope Francis said.

"Vocal prayer is an essential element of the Christian life," and when Jesus taught the disciples how to pray, it was with a vocal prayer, the "Our Father,"

Too often, people think reciting a prayer is something only children or the uneducated do, but it is the way Jesus taught his followers to pray. "The words we speak take us by the hand. At times they restore flavor, they awaken even the sleepest of hearts," they reawaken forgotten feelings and they "lead us by the hand toward experiencing God,". People should be humble when seeing the elderly who unfailingly show their fidelity to the duty of prayer and who are "often the great intercessors of parishes,".

"They are the oaks that from year to year spread their branches to offer shade to the greatest number of people," and even though they, too, must have faced moments of darkness and emptiness, they remain faithful to vocal prayer.

"It is like an anchor, one can hold onto the rope and remain faithful, come what may,".

"The words of a prayer get us safely through a dark valley, direct us toward green meadows rich in water and enable us to feast in front of the eyes of an enemy," as Psalm 23 teaches.

"Pain is dangerous if it stays covered, closed up within us" as it can poison the soul.

Sacred Scripture shows the human heart can be home to harmful or hateful feelings and when these evil feelings come knocking at the door of our heart, we must be able to defuse them with prayer and God's words." prayers "are the only ones, in a sure way, that direct to God the questions he wants to hear. Jesus did not leave us in a fog. He told us, 'Pray then like this,' and he taught the Lord's Prayer".

St. Francis de Sales once said, "Every one of us needs half an hour of prayer a day, except when we are busy – then we need an hour." It makes logical sense....the more weight we need to carry, the more strength we need to carry it.

Let God help carry your burden.

Love your enemies, stop condemning;
rather, pray for your enemies

What Makes a Dad

God took the strength of a mountain,
The majesty of a tree,
The warmth of a summer sun,
The calm of a quiet sea,
The generous soul of nature,
The comforting arm of night,
The wisdom of the ages,
The power of the eagle's flight,
The joy of a morning in spring,
The faith of a mustard seed,
The patience of eternity,
The depth of a family need,
Then God combined these qualities,
When there was nothing more to add,
He knew His masterpiece
was complete,
And so, He called it ... Dad
