Echatholic.org Moses was also a prophet and we hear the promise God made to the people through him. They are about to enter the promise land, but Moses will not go with them. Instead he gives them reassurance that God would not abandon them, but would raise up for them "a prophet like me."

Through Moses, God guided, strengthened and encouraged the people during their daily struggles, enabling them, to survive physically and spiritually in the desert. He planted the hope in their hearts that God would send them a prophet like him. From that point on, the people of Israel would expect the one who would deliver them from the external enemies that dominated them and the interior slavery that was their sin.

Today we are beset by a host of would-be prophets, who raise their voices on talk-shows, social media, and in current literature - all of pretending to have some special gift for discerning the truth. They know exactly what is wrong with modern-day society, and how precisely to cure any and all of its ills. Many of them are pretentious, egotistical, and intolerant, especially of those who disagree with them. We can feel overwhelmed by the negative, divisive and evil spirits that surround us.

But... we can be sure that they are not authentic prophets. In this babble of voices, the prophetic message of the Gospel will not be drowned out. It is proclaimed quietly but strongly by faith-filled men and women whose values stand in direct contrast to those of the world.

It is important for us to realize that the Lord's prophetic mission did not end when he returned to the Father. He clearly indicated that his followers would, in every age, be called on to carry on this mission in their world. It was perhaps the most significant element of the ritual of baptism, with sacred oil and the words: "As Christ was anointed priest, prophet and king, so may you live always as a member of his body..." this anointing with holy chrism, is high-lighted as most significant; it should characterize the entire life and spirit of the baptized Christian.

And if we are indeed prophets, then we can be assured that our proclaiming of the Gospel is done with the authority that Jesus has given us. May our prophetic witness to the Gospel preserve and strengthen the gifts of faith and freedom for future generations.

And may we accept the challenge of Jesus to live our lives in a loving way that allows the world to experience the God through us and to see His face through ours.

This month we are collecting:

Rice and Dried Potatoes

Until further notice only non-perishable FOOD will be accepted Thank you for your support!

Guelph Virtual Walking Pilgrimage
July 31—August 7, 2021

WALKING PILGRIMAGE IS ABOUT:
nourishing your spirit
enjoying the great outdoors

Those who walk the Guelph-to-Midland pilgrimage find it to be a unique and grace-filled experience. This year, like last summer, we are not able to walk the pilgrimage as we have for the last 18 years. Covid -19 brought the birth of a Virtual Walking Pilgrimage in a slightly different format. As a pilgrim, you decide where and how much you want to walk, and you are welcome to participate as much or as little as you can in the day's activities.

You will receive daily emails including links to:

Morning Liturgy at 7 a.m.

Morning reflection to set the tone for your day.

Some suggestions for activities for each day.

Pictures, reflections, music from past years.

Sacred Circles using Zoom at 7pm for sharing in small groups the experiences of your pilgrimage that day.

Join us, as we cast off routine and for eight days and acquiesce to a community of higher purpose. Participate for 1 day, a weekend or the full 8 days! To register or for more info. go to www.ignatiusguelph.ca (under programs - Guelph Walking
