Pope Frances on Prayer: A sacred fire that burns in our hearts which must never fail," like the "sacred fire that was kept in the ancient temples." "So," the Holy Father explains, "there must be a sacred fire in us too, which burns continually and which nothing can extinguish." Prayer can be a part of all our actions, prayer does not interrupt or contradict the duties of daily life, but gives them meaning and peace.

The inner balance between work and prayer But constant prayer is not easy. When we are caught up in the obligations of daily life, and find it difficult to think of God, we should remember that although God cares for every aspect of Creation, He also remembers each one of us personally. "And so we too must always remember Him," We must find the "inner balance" between work and prayer. Prayer that is too abstract can lose touch with reality, while work can keep us grounded. On the other hand, prayer complements work, it is the "breath" of all we do, remaining as a "living backdrop to work," even when it is not explicit. "It is inhuman, to be so absorbed in work that you can no longer find time for prayer."

Keeping the flame alive Recalling the experience of the Transfiguration. Jesus did not prolong the moment of ecstatic contemplation, but came down with the disciples to resume their daily journey. The experience of Mount Tabor, remained "in their hearts as the light and strength of their faith." The relationship between faith, life, and prayer, "one keeps alight the flame of Christian life that God expects of each one of us."

July 25, 2021

Pope Francis announced the establishment of the first World Day of Grandparents and the Elderly taking place on Sunday, July 25th with a theme “I am with you always”. This date coincides with the feast of Sts. Joachim and Anne, Jesus’ grandparents.

“Their voice is precious because it sings the praises of God and safeguards the roots of peoples. They remind us that old age is a gift and that grandparents are the link between generations, passing on the experience of life and faith to the young. Grandparents are often forgotten and we forget this wealth of preserving roots and passing on.”

We are invited never to forget our grandparents and elderly persons, cherishing them as essential members of the Church and society. He stressed the importance of the pastoral care of the elderly as “a priority that can no longer be postponed by any Christian community.” Many of our elderly live alone and are often lonely; this is our chance to let them know they matter.

PRAYER FOR THE FIRST WORLD DAY FOR GRANDPARENTS AND THE ELDERLY

I thank You, Lord, for the comfort of Your presence: even in times of loneliness, You are my hope and my confidence, You have been my rock and my fortress since my youth! I thank You for having given me a family and for having blessed me with a long life. I thank You for moments of joy and difficulty, for the dreams that have already come true in my life and for those that are still ahead of me. I thank You for this time of renewed fruitfulness to which You call me. Increase, O Lord, my faith, make me a channel of your peace, teach me to embrace those who suffer more than me, to never stop dreaming and to tell of your wonders to new generations. Protect and guide Pope Francis and the Church, that the light of the Gospel might reach the ends of the earth. Send Your Spirit, O Lord, to renew the world, that the storm of the pandemic might be calmed, the poor consoled and wars ended. Sustain me in weakness and help me to live life to the full in each moment that You give me, in the certainty that you are with me every day, even until the end of the age. Amen.
