September 5, 2021

I love hell. Let me qualify that. Hell is a great motivator, but shouldn't love be our greatest motivation? The problem with hell today is that hardly anyone believes they could possibly go there. Why this shift in perspective? Because we no longer comprehend what Heaven is.

People today think of Heaven as my happy place. I'll see my loved ones again, Um, forgetting someone? "Oh yeah," God can be there, too!

We have it all backwards. Heaven is God's home. If we don't like God on this Earth, don't like His ways, don't want to spend time with Him in this life, we're not going to want to spend eternity with Him in Heaven and He will never force us to do that. Now the teaching that "God never sends anyone to hell, we go there because we choose it," begins to make sense, doesn't it?

People tend to think that Heaven is automatic. "We're all basically good people, right? No one really wants to go to hell. - He loves everyone and forgives every kind of sin. Yes, God created us good, but He also gave us free will to choose to continue to be and do good ... or not. We are made in the "image" of God, but the "likeness" part is up to us. God tells us what comprises love: "If you love me, keep my commands." Jesus spoke about hell more than anyone else in the Bible. The good news is that we can start today to repent, to change, to do better, to have God in our heart, to love God..

How's that? Sin is when our desires get twisted up and we either desire the bad as a good, or we desire to acquire the good in a bad way.

Our desires are for truly good things: "I want to love and be loved," "I want to know if there's a God and what He's like," "I want my life to have meaning," "I want to be understood," etc. And we all desire the beautiful, true, valiant, delicious, stunning, amazing, intriguing, noble, consoling gifts in God's world, do we not? And sometimes we even experience or possess someone or something wonderful, do we not? But God doesn't just want us to love His gifts, He wants us to love Him — the Giver of the gifts — above all. (Sr. Helena, fsp, is a Daughter of St. Paul.

*"But those who wait for the Lord shall renew their strength, they shall mount up with wings like eagles,
they shall run and not be weary,
they shall walk and not faint." (Isaiah 40:31)*
