October 17, 2021

In this Sunday's Gospel, we continue to read from the section of Mark's Gospel that reports Jesus' journey to Jerusalem. Last week we heard Jesus lament the particular challenges those with many possessions face in order to enter the Kingdom of God. Jesus then predicts his passion to the Twelve, who are amazed and afraid. In this part of Mark's Gospel, Jesus' words to his closest disciples seem to be intended to prepare them for the events that will occur in Jerusalem.

In today's Gospel, James and John ask to be given seats of honor when Jesus enters into his glory. Once again, the disciples seem to be selective in what they hear Jesus say. They want to share Jesus' glory, but do not appear to understand that his glory will be preceded by his suffering. Jesus notes their lack of understanding and predicts the suffering they will endure for the sake of the Gospel. Jesus says that the honour they seek is not his to give. When the other ten hear what James and John have asked, Mark reports that they are indignant. Jesus takes the opportunity to teach them.

Jesus explains the importance of service and sacrifice in the life of a disciple. In particular, he seems to be preparing the Twelve for their leadership roles in the emerging Christian community. Jesus acknowledges that his teaching is countercultural. In today's Gospel, Jesus contrasts the dynamics within the community of disciples with those shown by the rulers of the Gentiles.

Following Jesus' example of sacrificial love continues to be countercultural in our day as well. We might take this opportunity to consider our models of authority and examine our own exercise of authority. On whose example do we model our leadership?

Canadian Food For Children News: SHOEBOXES

Due to COVID-19 we are unable to work together at Church to make up the annual shoeboxes. Instead of bringing articles for the shoeboxes it would be appreciated if parishioners would make a monetary donation this year, please place your funds in the collection basket marked (CFFC- shoeboxes).

If anyone has articles for shoeboxes, please bring them to church and we will see it gets sent.

Also, if you normally prepare your own shoeboxes and wish to donate, we will gratefully accept them. Please bring completed boxes marked girl/boy and size to church no later than November 20/21. Boxes will then be delivered to the warehouse for shipping. Boxes can be dropped off during office hours or on the weekend before or after mass as well. I have attached a separate attachment with more information.
