Gospel reflection—

Jesus then observes how Jewish pilgrims are making their contributions to the temple treasury. The Temple in Jerusalem was the center of Jewish worship in the time of Jesus. It was expected that observant Jews would make pilgrimages to the Temple to offer prayer and sacrifices. Pilgrims were also expected to make a financial contribution to the temple treasury. As we would expect to be the case, Jesus observes that those who were rich contributed large sums to the treasury. Those with less means made smaller contributions. A similar situation exists in most of our parishes as well. Jesus calls attention, however, to a poor widow who makes the smallest of contributions—two coins of little value. Jesus upholds the poor widow's offering for his disciples' consideration, commending her because her small offering was an act of profound generosity, giving from her livelihood rather than her surplus.

To give from our livelihood is not only an act of generosity, it is also an act of trust in God. We can only give from our need if we trust that God will provide for us. Jesus himself demonstrates the ultimate act of generosity and trust in God as he gives his life for us on the cross. LoyolaPress

Book of Life

As a parish, we will highlight this month by preparing our annual "Book of Life" into which we will place the names of our departed family and friends. Due to COVID restrictions you can sign the book using your own pen, or you can submit names by: emailing to: stgreg@rogers.com or placing the names in the collection plate. If using the last two options, I will insure that names are written into the 'Book of Life'.

Dear God,

We thank you for the wonderful memories we have of our departed loved ones.

We are grateful when these memories bring us happiness and comfort.

Help us to continue to keep the memories of our loved ones alive by living out the gifts and virtues we treasured so much in their lives.

May our remembrance of them in this way help their spirit to live on in us, and may the virtues contribute to building your kingdom here on earth.

Amen.

Freedom consists not in doing what we like, but in having the right to do what we ought. St. John Paul II
