The Pope's Prayer Intention of this month

For true human fraternity

We pray for all those suffering from religious discrimination and persecution; may their own rights and dignity be recognized, which originate from being brothers and sisters in the human family.

There are two births of Christ:
one unto the world in Bethlehem;
the other in the soul.

Ven. Fulton Sheen

Prayer for the New Year

O God of new beginnings and wonderful surprises, thank you for the gift of a new year.

May it be a time of grace for me,
a time to grow in faith and love,

a time to renew my commitment to following your Son, Jesus.

May it be a year of blessing for me,
a time to cherish my family and friends,

a time to renew my efforts at work,
a time to embrace my faith more fully.

Walk with me, please, in every day and every hour of this New Year, that the light of Christ might shine through me, in spite of my weaknesses and failings.

Above all, may I remember this year that I am a pilgrim on the sacred path to you. Amen

2022 MASSES AVAILABLE!

January 9 2022

After the infancy narratives, this is Jesus' first appearance in the Gospel. Jesus' baptism signalled a life-changing decision. If we read the Gospels without imposing later teachings on them, we see that they depict Jesus as a thoroughly human man whose goal was to discern and do God's will and to bring others along with him. We assume that until this time, Jesus had lived as an ordinary craftsman, one more among the inhabitants of Nazareth. Then one day, he joined the tax collectors, soldiers and throngs of ordinary folk going to John. He identified himself with their hopes and needs rather than with the righteous who felt no need for major changes. This, Jesus' first public act, declared his loyalty: He would stand with the people who desired a radical return to God for themselves and their world.

After allowing himself to be baptized, Jesus heard the divine voice say, "You are my beloved Son." Whatever it had taken to get him to that moment, whatever the options he had discarded and doubts he had to overcome, Jesus had received not just a baptism, but an affirmation and a naming. When Luke describes the Spirit and the voice that came to Jesus, the background music is that of the Servant Song of Isaiah 42 in which God says, "Here is my servant, my chosen one upon whom I have put my spirit." That song about God's servant reaffirmed Jesus' choices and set him on a path to serve the neediest of God's people. Today is a good day to renew our baptism and the commitments that have flowed from it. It is always risky to make commitments about an unknown future, but like our Lord, we can trust that the Spirit will lead us to where God will say, "You are my beloved in whom I am well pleased." Mary McGlone

Clothe yourself with Thankfulness

Think of how often we fail to show appreciation for the many gifts with which we have been blessed.

Think of how much we take for granted.

Clothe yourself with thankfulness. Be grateful for the people who have touched your life.

Family members and friends.....

Who challenge you to grow; who share smiles and laughter; who offer comfort and support; who embrace you in love.

Be grateful for the many ways the Lord has touched your life....

Calling you by name; offering the gift of grace; adopting you as his own; embracing you in love.

Clothe yourself with thankfulness.

This month we are collecting:

Soup (canned or dried)

Until further notice only non-perishable FOOD will be accepted Thank you for your support!
