Clothe yourself with Gentleness

Think about

how gently a butterfly alights on a flower;
how gently snowflakes fall from the sky;
how gently babies touch their mothers' faces;
how gently Jesus reached for the little children to embrace them;
how gently he reaches out to embrace you.

Clothe yourself with gentleness

The world is often harsh instead of gentle.
That is why the Lord invites you to be gentle.
The world will understand his gentleness only if it is reflected in you.

Clothe yourself with gentleness

In your words; in your actions; in your families;
in all your relationships with others; in your attitude toward yourself.

Clothe yourself with gentleness—
the Lord's gentleness

January 30, 2022

January offers us a chance to recalibrate. We are invited and challenged to live each of this year's 365 days as people of faith. Let's face it, 2022, at the outset, doesn't look explicitly hopeful. We exist in a world where there is little respect for life or the family. We live in a topsy-turvy world where sinful acts garner praise and traditional morality is discouraged. People have lost faith in God and faith in themselves. Without hope, humanity is more vulnerable to fear and despair. And of course the pandemic goes on... and on and on. But we are God's children. We are made, created and loved by Him. So now, as He has been forgotten, we must remember Him more than ever. Every good deed we do affects other people. Let us do everything for the glory of God because loving Him and our neighbour can transform the world. We need to transform ourselves. Every day, we need some time to self-meditate and consider what we could do to be better. We must examine our spiritual attire. St. Paul tells us to "put on the armour of God." To fight a battle against the devil, we will need such protection. We have to use the shield of faith to safeguard us from temptation. We must wear the amour of truth to thwart irrational attacks. We must use the sword of prayer. No one is strong enough to defeat Satan but God. You are not alone in this fight. God is there for you. Trust in God and He will be your strength. (Shaw, 15, is home schooled in Barry's Bay, Ont.)

There is no space where God is not; space does not exist apart from him. St. Hilary

STORIES OF A GENERATION WITH POPE FRANCIS is the title of a warm, uplifting and inspirational series on NETFLIX. The series began on December 25th – and is based on the Pope's 2018 book, Sharing the Wisdom of Time, published by Loyola Press. The series showcases stories from people over 70 from all quarters of the globe, including the Pope himself, as they impart their life experiences to young filmmakers. Each of its four one-hour episodes is devoted to a central theme: "Love", "Dream", "Struggle", and "Work". There are a few famous names among the stories, including Martin Scorsese and Jane Goodall, but most of those who are presented have never lived in the spotlight! If you subscribe to NETFLIX, it is well worth a watch!

This month we are collecting:
Canned Meat and Fish
Until further notice only non-perishable FOOD will be accepted Thank you for your support!

WATCH: Ryan Defrates: Secret Agent is an animated action-adventure series about a young spy with a whole lot to learn!

The Reel Justice Film Festival We are excited to offer another year of engaging films, which spotlight issues of social, political, and economic injustice. Join us January 27, 2022 at 7:00 P.M. for "There's Something in the Water". The film documents environmental racism in Nova Scotia, revealing a portrait of ecological and social disaster, where rural areas are plagued by toxic fallout from industrial development and your postal code determines your health. This is a partnership between Development & Peace and the Bishop Farrell Library & Archives. Visit reeljusticefilmfestival.wordpress.com to view scheduled films in 2022 and to secure your spot.
