Clothe yourself with Patience

Does a caterpillar hurry to spin a cocoon? Never! A caterpillar is patient. Does a butterfly hurry to break out of its cocoon? No. A butterfly is patient. Does a bud open before it feels the warm rays of the sun? No. A bud waits patiently. Does a bird hurry in building its nest? No. A bird builds patiently, twig by twig, until the nest is completed.

It seems as if all of God's creatures, except for people, understand patience.

To each of us the Lord is saying.... Clothe yourself with Patience.

Be patient with one another, with family members, with friends, with co-workers, with neighbours. Be patient when things aren't going smoothly; remember that good things take time. Be patient when everyone else is in a hurry. Take the time to rest, to enjoy, to appreciate. Be patient with yourself. Permit yourself to make mistakes. Give yourself time to grow. Be patient with yourself as the Lord is patient with you. And always remember how much he love you!

Clothe yourself with patience.

The Beatitudes jar our sensibilities. Those who are poor, hungry, weeping, or persecuted are called blessed. This is, indeed, a Gospel of reversals. Those often thought to have been forgotten by God are called blessed. In the list of “woes,” those whom we might ordinarily describe as blessed by God are warned about their peril. Riches, possessions, laughter, reputation . . . these are not things that we can depend upon as sources of eternal happiness. They not only fail to deliver on their promise; our misplaced trust in them will lead to our demise. The ultimate peril is in misidentifying the source of our eternal happiness.

The Beatitudes are often described as a framework for Christian living. Our vocation as Christians is not to be first in this world, but rather to be first in the eyes of God. We are challenged to examine our present situation in the context of our ultimate horizon, the Kingdom of God. Loyolapress.com

THE EIGHT BEATITUDES OF JESUS

*Blessed are the poor in spirit,
for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.*

*Blessed are they who mourn,
for they shall be comforted.*

*Blessed are the meek,
for they shall inherit the earth.*

Blessed are they who hunger and thirst for righteousness, for they shall be satisfied.

*Blessed are the merciful,
for they shall obtain mercy.*

*Blessed are the pure of heart,
for they shall see God.*

*Blessed are the peacemakers,
for they shall be called children of God.*

Blessed are they who are persecuted for the sake of righteousness, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven." Gospel of Matthew 5:3-10

WOMEN OF ST. GREGORY'S

If you are 16 or older you are encouraged to hold a membership in the Catholic Women's League of Canada. Your membership is important because it joins thousands of faith-filled Catholic women's voices across the country where the CWL has fought for the rights of women, family and the marginalized. Membership includes a quarterly news magazine (keeps you updated on the CWL works, share inspiration and prayer).

Dues are $25.00 which provides support to the national, provincial and diocesan councils for research and communication with all levels of government.

Our own parish council is a small group but we are proud of our donations of thousands of dollars to our own Church, our schools and local community groups for the needy. We look forward to serving our parish with our bazaar, picnics, funeral committee and are always ready to assist when called upon.

For more info. contact Lisa Chippindale @ lisa-chip1963@gmail.com . Dues can be dropped off using the mail slot found in the church office door. Mark envelope CWL with your name, address, telephone #, email address. Thank you.
