Formulating a Plan of Life for Lent and Beyond by Father Roger J. Landry

In almost every sphere of life, those who take something seriously come up with a plan. Sports teams, flourishing businesses, successful individuals all teach us a powerful lesson: Those who get results are generally the ones with better strategies implemented with perseverance.

That's true, of the spiritual life, which is too important to wing. So much of our happiness, in this world and in the next, depends on whether we have a plan, whether it's adequate to form us in holiness, and whether we make and keep the commitment to follow that plan.

Pope Benedict used to stress that Lent is not about making minor course corrections in our lives, but about experiencing a radical and total conversion. It's a moral exodus in which we give up the easy superficiality in which we live and resolve to adopt faithfully, step by step, Christ's own path. It's meant to be a Passover from mediocrity to sanctity; from being a part-time disciple to inserting ourselves fully into Christ's paschal mystery. Lent, in short, is meant to help us recalibrate our entire existence and propel us toward becoming the Christians that our faith calls us to be.

Our resolutions ought to reflect this. Will giving up candy for 40 days really make us holy? What about filling up a rice bowl with loose change or adding three extra Hail Mary's to our prayers? Such resolutions are, I think, equivalent to a professional athlete's thinking he can train for the upcoming season by lifting five-pound barbells and watching Richard Simmons' videos!

Lent, rather, is the "acceptable time" to get radical and put out into the deep, to overcome the temptation to become spiritual sissies in the resolutions we make, because if we're wimps in the annual "spiritual boot camp" of Lent, then it's almost impossible for us to have the spiritual discipline to live by Christ's high standards throughout the rest of the year.....To be continued

This month we are collecting:

Pasta and Sauce

Until further notice only non-perishable FOOD will be accepted Thank you for your support!

FATHER JIM PETRIE sent a recorded message from his hospital bed to parishioners of St. Benedict Parish, Milton. It is a powerful Lenten reflection for them and for us all. Father Jim has given us permission to publish the recorded message. Wwww. Stbenedictparish.ca see it on the right hand of St. Benedict icon Please continue to pray for Father Jim who is still under the close care and attention of his doctors. Bishop Crosby

CANADIAN FOOD FOR CHILDREN
CANS FOR COINS

Please take a can home and put in any change/money that might be left over from shopping or from the day's activities throughout the Lenten Season. Bring the cans back to church during Holy Week. Each 20 cents provides a nutritious meal for a starving child in one of CFFC Missions. Thanks for your anticipated generosity.

Jesus, I Give You My Heart

Jesus, I give you my heart so that you may replace it with your heart and so that I may thus love God our Father as you do, love my brothers and sisters as you do.

May it be no longer I who live, but rather you;
I who pray, I who adore, but rather you;
may it be no longer I who work, but rather you;
I who suffer, but rather you.

May it be no longer I who love, but rather you.

May your gaze transform my eyes so that I may look upon all people as you would, with kindness and benevolence.

May your light fill my mind and may it radiate through me and enlighten those whom I meet.

May your love set my heart ablaze and move through my words and gestures, filling all with your meekness, your goodness, your humility, your tenderness.

May my life be an incessant prayer of praise, of adoration and of love to God, our Father, through a sincere "yes" to his will at every moment. (Mother Julienne du Rosaire, OP.)
