Fr. Austin Fleming On Keeping the Lord's Word

Whoever loves me will keep my word... Jesus is looking for hearts that will keep his word. Of course, he's not the only one! Many people give us their word to keep: friends, spouses, colleagues... They give us their word of friendship, their word of love, their word of trust, their word of pledge and promise...

These are people looking for hearts in which they can speak their word without fear of ridicule or rejection... They're looking for hearts in which their word will be respected, revered and treasured when entrusted from one heart to another... We all seek hearts that will keep our word and Jesus looks for hearts that will keep his word...

Keeping someone's word in my heart is not always easy. It requires: attentiveness, care, vigilance, loyalty, a strength that is gentle and a gentleness that is robust. To keep someone's word in my heart is to be attuned, even obedient to its presence; to listen and respond to it faithfully; to be faithful to the one who gave my heart a word to keep.

Together let's honour and celebrate the retirement of Father Malcolm author and Catholic, J.R.R. Tolkien. The relationships he exhibited are a wonderful example for all of us to follow, especially with those we may disagree with. As Tolkien described marriage, it's all about being "companions in shipwreck."

"A Christ has no body on earth but yours, No hands but yours, No feet but yours. Yours are the feet with which He goes about doing food. And yours are the hands with which He is to bless us now." St. Theresa of Avila

Have you considered supporting the parish through pre-authorized giving?

This allows you to give to the parish through scheduled monthly transfers from your bank account, and helps ensure regular, dependable contributions to the parish. Security Most of all, though, pre-authorized giving affords us the opportunity to reorient how we think about giving. Rather than giving from what's left over, this method of giving encourages us to discern a level of Parish support with greater intention. In this way, we respond more fully to the call to "honour the Lord with your wealth, with the first fruits of all your produce." (Proverbs 3, 9-10) For more info. or to enrol, please contact the parish office or pick up the form on the table across from the parish hall.
