Father Donald Senior, CP - Ascension Of Our Lord.

Today is the feast of the Ascension and the New Testament portrays the final destiny of Jesus as “going home” to his father.

Luke presents the life and mission of Jesus as a long journey. On one level, it is a journey from his ministry in the northern region of Galilee to the city of Jerusalem where Jesus’ destiny will unfold. But on a deeper level, the journey in which Jesus is engaged is a journey through death and resurrection to the eternal embrace of his Father at the completion of his mission.

Luke portrays that moment. The risen Jesus commissions his disciples the continuance of his own sacred mission: They are to proclaim “repentance” and “forgiveness of sins” to “all nations, beginning from Jerusalem.” The disciples are to be “witnesses of these things,” bringing the beauty and reconciling power of God’s love to the world.

Then, Jesus leads them to Bethany. There he gives them his final blessing and “is taken up to heaven.” There is a dramatic conclusion to this passage. While the disciples stare into the heavens where Jesus has gone, two angels bring them back to earth: “Men of Galilee, why are you standing there looking at the sky? This Jesus who has been taken up from you into heaven will return in the same way as you have seen him going into heaven.”

Don’t just stand there, the message seems to say, there is work to be done. Get ready!

The feast of the Ascension is a promise that our final destiny, like that of Jesus, is “going home.”

Have you considered supporting the parish through pre-authorized giving?

This allows you to give to the parish through scheduled monthly transfers from your bank account, and helps ensure regular, dependable contributions to the parish. Security Most of all, though, pre-authorized giving affords us the opportunity to reorient how we think about giving. Rather than giving from what’s left over, this method of giving encourages us to discern a level of Parish support with greater intention. In this way, we respond more fully to the call to “honour the Lord with your wealth, with the first fruits of all your produce.” (Proverbs 3, 9-10) For more info. or to enrol, please contact the parish office or pick up the form on the table across from the parish hall.

This month we are collecting:
Peanut Butter and Crackers
Thank you for your support!
