We shall steer safely through every storm so long as our heart is right, our intention fervent, our courage steadfast and our trust fixed on God. — St. Francis de Sales

June 26, 2022

Bishop Robert Barron on this week's Gospel — Friends, I'm going to be blunt with you: today's Gospel is really challenging. It cuts right to the heart of the ethical implications of the Gospel. There's something of a "be all, end all" quality about Jesus, something of an either/or. As he says, "Whoever is not with me is against me." What follows from this is what I call the principle of detachment and of motives. If Jesus is unambiguously the center of your life, then everything else has to find its place in relation to him. If the good things of the world become more important than following him, then something has gone off-kilter. You may say that Jesus clarifies that all worldly goods find their value in relation to Him. If we believe Jesus is the only Son of God, we must place our grudges, personal desires, and even our most sacred worldly obligations aside in order to walk truly and completely with Him.

The value of our life does not depend on the place we occupy. It depends on the way we occupy that place— St. Therese of Lisieux

World Youth Day Celebration (ages 18-35) will be held in Lisbon, Portugal 2023.
