Thank you for your Generosity!

My dear Sisters and Brothers in Christ. I am happy to report that I have completed the move to retirement in Burlington and am settling in nicely at St. Paul the Apostle Parish. I have brought with me many fine and cherished memories of my time as your Pastor at Saint Gregory the Great Parish. I would like to thank you all for your kind words of encouragement, your gifts and cards and, most importantly, your friendship extended to me over the past five years. As I said in my farewell homily, this is NOT goodbye but simply so long. May God pour His abundant blessing upon you always! Fr. Malcolm

Pray with great confidence, with confidence based upon the goodness and infinite generosity of God and upon the promises of Jesus Christ. — St. Louis Grignon de Montfort

On July 24, 2022 we will celebrate the second World Day for Grandparents and the Elderly. Pope Francis' goal of creating this yearly world day was to bring attention to our need to care for our elderly. This date coincides with the feast of Sts. Joachim and Anne, Jesus' grandparents. .
"Their voice is precious because it sings the praises of God and safeguards the roots of peoples. They remind us that old age is a gift and that grandparents are the link between generations, passing on the experience of life and faith to the young. Grandparents are often forgotten and we forget this wealth of preserving roots and passing on." said Cardinal Kevin J. Farrell, prefect of the Dicastery for Laity, the Family and Life. He sees this event as "a gift to the whole church" since it stresses the importance of the pastoral care of the elderly as "a priority that can no longer be postponed by any Christian community." Many of our elderly live alone and are often lonely; this is our chance to let them know they matter to the Church and the community.

July 10, 2022

Don't ever give way to the distress that keeps you aloof from Me. Be sure that My goodness is infinitely greater than the sinfulness of My children. If you didn't count on Me for help, to whom would you turn?" —Jesus to French mystic Gabrielle Bossis, in his book "He and I"

Jesus longs to meet us in the Sacrament of Confession. But for some of us, the sacrament may not feel like much of an encounter with Jesus. Perhaps you've had a bad experience in confession. Or maybe you haven't gone to confession in years and the prospect feels overwhelming. Or you might be questioning the need for the sacrament. After all, can't we just ask God to forgive us in our personal prayer or at Mass? "Admitting our sins is hard—we simply don't like to embarrass ourselves!" But "God desires our healing to be a fully human one and so it must involve another person, because our sins hurt others.... The sacrament of Penance provides a structure where we find what we need in order to seek and to experience God's mercy in the fullest possible way."

After Confession, "as far as God is concerned, our sin disappears from history." How's that for a fresh start? As you prepare for Confession, ask Jesus to help you see where he is calling you to conversion. Pray through the Ten Commandments or the Beatitudes, or another prayer book to identify what sins to mention. Then, look up the Confession times at your church and choose a time to go. Jesus will meet you there. From the Daughters of St. Paul.

PARENTING TIP OF THE MONTH -

Summer days are upon us, a perfect time to unwind a little and spend some quality time as a family. Playing outdoor and indoor games, walking in nature, having water balloon fights and taking time to thank God for our many blessings are all ways to build relationships with each other. Children need to be well connected to their family in order to feel safe, secure and important. Time together is the best way to build these significant bonds. Family Ministry Office.

Dawn Centre is looking to employ an Administrative Assistant who will aid us in our Christian ministry by providing administrative support & developing initial rapport with clients. This position is made possible through the Canada Summer Jobs program; employment will be for 30 hrs a week, at $15/hour for 8 weeks.
