Stranger At Our Side—reflections by Fr. Hanley St Luke tells us how the Risen Lord walks among us, how the Risen Lord is with us all the time, how the Risen Lord is not seen; and occasionally is seen, but seen in a different sort of way that we take for granted.

St. Luke takes the gospel you just have read and he addresses it, not to the people before or the people that are outside, but to you and I, as the ones who are walking the way, in great fear, from Jerusalem towards the little town of Emmaus.

I found this reflection I wanted to share with you.

All through life's day,
you walk with us Lord.

But often we don't recognize you,
for we are blinded by work and worry,
doubt, confusion and fear,
and so you remain a stranger to us.

Before the day's end we will ask many questions,
experience many sorrows and disappointments,
and then, suddenly,

whether we are young, middle-aged or old,
we will find that night is falling.

In that moment we pray,
that like the disciples on the road to Emmaus, our eyes will be opened and that we will recognize you.

And you will not vanish from our sight,
but stay with us,
to guide us to the Father's house.
we ask this grace through Christ our Lord. Amen.

2,000 HAIL MARY'S

The gathered prays this private devotion to Our Lady, asking her for any kind of favours, and trusting that God will grant them through our Lady's powerful intercession.
