Striving for Unity : I urge you, brothers and sisters, in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, that all of you agree in what you say, and that there be no divisions among you ... (1 Corinthians 1:10)

When our world, our Church, and our families are suffering from division, it can be easy to dismiss Paul's words as naïve. But this line from Paul's letter to the Corinthians contains an important truth. As baptized Christians, we are the Body and presence of Christ in the world, and the person of Jesus Christ is not divided. Jesus is one with his Heavenly Father. As men and women baptized in Christ, we are called to be one with our Father, too.

How do we reach this union with God and with each other? With the grace offered through the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass. Blessed James Alberione saw the Mass as "the prayer of universality and of unity ... whereby the Church spiritually gathers the mass of humanity around the altar." The more consciously we participate at Mass and integrate this great prayer into our daily lives, the more we open ourselves to the grace of unity Jesus offers us here.

"The liturgy is like a river of grace, light, and blessing, which flows through the year," Blessed Alberione wrote. As we wade deeper into this river in this season of Eucharistic Revival, may we find the path to greater peace with God, others, and ourselves.

Your sisters in Christ, Daughters of St. Paul

THE STANDING COMMITTEE FOR FAMILY AND LIFE of the Canadian Conference of Catholic Bishops (CCCB) released a 40-second promotional video supporting the Third World Day for Grandparents and Elderly to take place on Sunday, July 23, 2023. Pope Francis' chosen theme this year is His mercy is from age to age (Luke 1:50), which raises the relational interconnection between the old and the young. <https://youtu.be/XZTn7V-tkbn>
