The Gospel: Matthew 13:1-23. Sower of Seeds
His message of salvation has been preached to a great part of the world's population, but the proportion of those who accept it and live up to it, is about the same today as it was then.

They refuse to accept the message, they have no thought for their future, they are content to end in the grave.

There are others who see the truth and the consolation of the Christian gospel, but when it comes to making sacrifices, they give up. The message did not sink into their hearts and minds. They are like the seed which fell on rocky ground because their faith had no deep roots in their lives.

Others are like the seed that fell among the briars and thorns. They accepted the faith, it took root in them, but later on, "the cares of the world" and the delight in riches chokes the word and it proves unfruitful.

But others are like the seed sown on good soil. They not only accept Christ and his teachings, but they live up to it, and, come what may, they are faithful to it. These will produce fruit and will earn for themselves eternal happiness.

Each one of us can look into our own conscience and discover to which we belong. Are we like the seed that fell on the rocky ground? When Christianity makes no demands we are all for it, but when it demands mortification, curbing of passion, real sacrifices do we forget our Christian calling and ignore its precepts? How does our type of Christianity stand up to the temptations of the world—the desire to get all the enjoyment we can out of this life, licit or illicit, breaking God's commandments weekly/daily? Are we chasing after wealth/power to rise above our neighbor by fair or foul means? If the above are our aims in life, our Christianity has been or is being choked out of us. There are millions of saints in heaven today, enjoying eternal happiness, who had some, if not all, of our present failings. We, too, can be with them one day, provided we do what they did. They repented sincerely and remained God's close friends, until the end. May the merciful God give us the grace to imitate them while we yet have time.
