Divine Mercy Sunday: If you've ever stepped into a Catholic church and noticed a striking image of Jesus with red and white rays shining from his heart and the words "Jesus, I trust in You" below, you've seen the Divine Mercy image.

Divine Mercy centers upon God's great love for us and the infinite compassion that flows from it. "loving the unlovable and forgiving the unforgivable." Only God expresses love, compassion, and forgiveness to their utmost. This is why we say that God is love (1 John 4:8). God's mercy is infinite, lasting from age to age without limit. One of the greatest parables in the Gospel is the story of the prodigal son. The father of the prodigal son welcomed his son's return with great joy and every good thing in the same way that our merciful God receives repentant sinners. The Lord not only forgives us but also wants to reinstitute everything to us. Jesus himself is the image of God's Divine Mercy —

"the face of the Father's mercy," as Pope Francis wrote — because Christ came to rescue us from the misery of our sinfulness. We are not perfect, and we never can be, but God does not leave us to struggle for it on our own. Instead, he sent Jesus, his Son, to bring about our reconciliation and redemption. Through Christ, God reveals that his mercy is greater than our individual sins and even than those of the entire world.

Christ offers bounteous graces to those who venerate his image in the Divine Mercy: "I promise that the soul that will venerate this image will not perish. I also promise victory over [its] enemies already here on earth, especially at the hour of death. I Myself will defend it as My own glory" (Diary of St. Faustina, 48)

Divine Mercy Sunday April 27th at 3:00 pm.
Join us for this special celebration with prayers and blessings.

RETREAT AT THE CARMEL: The Carmel of St. Joseph Guild is hosting their annual retreat at the Carmelite Monastery on Saturday, May 24, 2025: "Hope" is the theme for the Retreat. The retreat will give you an opportunity to experience the graces and blessings of the Jubilee Year.

A light lunch and refreshments will be provided. Visit St. Joseph website: www.thecarmel.ca for more info. If you haven't registered yet, please do so, as space is limited. RSVP before May 16 either by phone: 519-884-6700 or email: saintagatha@thecarmel.ca

April 27, 2025

O God, faithful rewarder of souls, grant that your departed servant Pope Francis, whom you made successor of Peter and shepherd of your Church, may happily enjoy for ever in your presence in heaven the mysteries of your grace and compassion, which he faithfully ministered on earth. Through Christ our Lord, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, God for ever and ever. Amen.

Bulletin Ads: We are in the process of updating our bulletin sponsor program. For a nominal annual fee, local businesses can support our Parish and help offset the cost of preparing our parish bulletin. If you are a representative of a business that is in a position to support this initiative, please reach out to the parish office for details. To community members of Saint Gregory's, please consider acknowledging the sponsorship in the event you patron our bulletin advertisers.
