Explore the impact of Mary's Meals

Mary's Meals provide individual children and their families, with a light of hope. These meals are impacting children who would otherwise be separated by poverty levels, tribal conflicts and caste systems, our movement here for the long term; but that the impact of our program can span a lifetime. Through our long-term support, we foster each child's potential so they can keep attending school and learn essential life skills to help them contribute positively to their own Communities. Reflection: In today's Gospel, Jesus gives this farewell address to his apostles: "Behold, I am sending the promise of the Father upon you." This commission continues in the First Reading in Acts chapter 1, when Jesus enjoins his apostles to wait for "the promise of the Father about which you have heard me speak." These are puzzling words, and the apostles could only gawk at the sky as their Lord was taken up to heaven to his Father.

But notice how two men in white garments (angels?) stood beside them and said, "Men of Galilee, why are you standing there looking at the sky?" I see this passage as a challenge. Don't just stand there gawking. Get to work! Get on with the ministry that Jesus entrusted to you!

Jesus knew his apostles would need the gift of the Holy Spirit to carry out his ministry. The Spirit is the "promise" mentioned in the Gospel and in Acts. Easter joy continues! During these days between Ascension and Pentecost, let us pray that we be renewed once again by the Holy Spirit we received at our Baptism and Confirmation. Jesus is counting on us to continue his ministry to the world!
