Thank you for your Generosity!

Prayer for Thanksgiving

God of all Creation,

grant us on this day hearts of gratitude for the uncountable gifts you give us – gifts not only for our survival but for our pure pleasure.

For why else would you give us maple syrup and autumn leaves and puppies?

We give thanks for our food, our families and friends.

We give thanks for lakes and mountains and sky.

We give thanks for more gifts than we can name or count.

Grant us also on this day hearts of generosity and compassion for those who benefit less than we do from the bounty of the earth, for those who do not have enough food to eat or whose lives are fraught with suffering.

Help us, in our blessedness, to reach out to them and share our bounty.

And grant us on this day hearts of justice so that we not only desire but act for a world in which your gifts are shared by all. Amen.

(Christine Way Skinner)

Pope's prayer intention: For our relationship with all of creation: Let us pray that, inspired by Saint Francis, we might experience our interdependence with all creatures who are loved by God and worthy of love and respect.

Reflection: Jesus heals ten lepers in today's gospel. This story is a lesson about faith and reminds us that faith is sometimes found in unlikely places. Ten people afflicted with leprosy cry out to Jesus. Struck with pity, Jesus heals all ten. However, only one is described as glorifying God and returning to thank Jesus. The one who returns is a Samaritan, a foreigner. In the Jewish circles in which Jesus lived, Samaritans were looked down upon because of the differences between the two communities in their observance of Judaism. Jesus commends the Samaritan for his faith, which has been his salvation.

Another lesson for us has to do with salvation. All ten of the lepers were given the gift of healing, but in his gratitude to God for this gift, the Samaritan found salvation. Our salvation is found in recognizing the gifts we have been given and knowing to whom we must offer our thanks.

Therefore the gospel talks about healing, faith, and gratitude. How do we deal with God's gifts? Do we really acknowledge the gift of faith, healing and gratitude?

Wishing All a Wonderful Thanksgiving Day

October is Diocesan Vocations Month.

Please pray for the men and women of our diocese who are discerning their vocations to marriage, priesthood, the permanent diaconate, the dedicated single life, and consecrated life, that is, as a consecrated virgin living in the world, or as a religious priest, sister or brother. Since it is also the month of Our Lady of the Rosary, you are encouraged to offer the Rosary, in particular, the Luminous Mysteries, for vocations.
visit: hamiltondiocese.com/vocations/pray-for-vocations. Blessed Virgin Mary, Our Lady of the Rosary and Mother of Vocations, pray for us!
