Reflection: God Listens to the Humble

One thing that we can learn from today's gospel story of the Pharisees is that, while God approves of no sin, His mercy and His forgiveness is available for all sinners except the proud. It isn't that God cannot or will not forgive the sin of pride but that the proud man will not ask for God's forgiveness.

Be on your guard against this insidious and destructive vice, as it can grow in us almost without our knowing. Once it has taken root it is difficult to eradicate. It is destructive as it spoils every other virtue we practice and every good work we do. Charity, or brotherly love, cannot flourish in a proud heart, for a proud heart is so full of self that it has no room for others. Are you proud? Do we like others to see and hear of our good works, or do we do them in secret? Do we give generously to charitable causes when no list of benefactors is published? Do we willingly take part among the rank and fill in parish activities or are you offended if not the leaders? Do we criticize those who are not all they should be, or do we thank God that we were saved from similar temptations? Do we always try to find excuses for the failings of others or have we excuses for our own faults only? God forbid that any one in this congregation should be suffering from this, the worst of all vices. If anyone recognizes that he is, let him pray to God from the bottom of his heart for the virtue of humility, and look for every possible occasion to practice it. Let's remember the two men praying in the Temple. One was full of himself and boasted to God and to all present, of his many good works. The Other just humbly beat his breast and asked for mercy. — Fr. Kevin O' Sullivan, O.F.M.

CHRISTMAS SHOEBOX

Time to return the boxes

If you still wish to participate boxes are still available at both entrances to the church.
