Reflection: Faith and Patience in Times of Struggle

The first reading comes from the book of Habakkuk. The prophet looks around and sees violence and injustice. He wonders why God is not doing anything. He cries out, asking how long this will continue. This is a question many people ask when they see suffering and unfairness in the world.

God responds to Habakkuk with a message of hope. He tells him to write down a vision, a promise that justice will come. It may take time, but it will surely happen. This reminds us that God's timing is different from ours. When we feel discouraged or impatient, we must hold onto our faith. Trusting in God means believing that He sees what is happening and will act at the right time.

Faith is not just about believing when things are going well. It is about trusting even when we don't understand. The reading teaches us to be patient and to continue doing what is right, even when change seems slow. In the end, God's justice will come, and those who remain faithful will not be disappointed.

- We learn that even a little faith can do great things
 - Faith is not about rewards or recognition but about trusting God and doing what is expected of His followers.
 - True faith expresses itself in humble obedience, not seeking praise
