Book of Life

Only two more weeks in which our Book of Life will be available to enter your loved ones who have passed away. Whether your loss is more immediate and you are struggling with feelings of grief, loss and hopelessness, or if you are simply commemorating special anniversaries of loved ones. November brings opportunities to pause, reflect and pray.

We have loved Them during life, let us not abandon Them until we have conducted Them by our prayers into the House of the Lord.

(Saint Ambrose)

Reflection: Today we celebrate the last Sunday of the Liturgical Year, known as the Solemnity of Our Lord Jesus Christ, King of the Universe.

CHRIST IN MY LIFE Who is my king? Whom do I serve? I want to serve you, Lord, because you truly are the King. But I still tend so much to serve myself. I want people to do things my way – I want to have what I want, when I want it. I want my plans to work out exactly as I plan them. I guess all of this is natural, but you want to lead me to the supernatural realm. Renew my mind and heart, Lord; Thy will be done, not mine...

Every time I have followed your voice resounding in my conscience, I have experienced the peace and the satisfaction that comes from living in harmony with the truth. And every time I haven't, I writhe and agonize. And yet I still haven't learned, Lord. I still waffle. How do you put up with me? O Jesus, purify my heart, pour your love into my heart; with the courage of your heart, strengthen my heart...

Mary, I don't want to be like Pilate. Why am I such a reluctant disciple? I know Jesus; I have been given a share in his mission – what greater privilege could I desire? And yet, sometimes I look at it as if it were a burden. The spirit of self-centeredness and fascination with the trinkets of this world still pulls at me. Mary, teach me to be his faithful friend, his brave soldier. Mother most pure, pray for me...

by John Bartunek, LC from catholic.duke.edu/com

My glorious King of the Universe, You are perfect in all of Your ways. Your divine Law must reign in my heart and become my life's purpose. As we honor Your kingship today, I rededicate myself to You and submit more fully to Your sovereign control of my life. Please use me to build Your Kingdom on earth. Jesus, I trust in You.

"SPIRIT OF HOPE COLLECTION" During this year there have been many initiatives to celebrate the Jubilee Year of Hope. As we approach the conclusion of this year of the Lord's favour, we are reminded of the prompting of Pope Francis, that debts be forgiven and assistance be given to the poorest among us. The Episcopal Board recommended that each Parish take up a special "Spirit of Hope Collection", to assist the poor in their respective parishes. Therefore the weekend, November 29th and 30th. We will have a second collection "Spirit of Hope Collection" and will designate the monies received for the support of the poor in our community. There are special envelopes at the back of the church for this collection.

Prayer for Forgiveness

A King full of mercy invites His people to return with repentance.

“If we confess our sins, he is faithful and just to forgive us.” — 1 John 1:9

Lord, I come before Your throne asking for mercy. Forgive me for the times I wandered away, for the moments I doubted, for the things I said or did that grieved Your heart. Wash me with Your love and cleanse me with Your grace. Let my life honor Your holiness. Restore me with Your gentle forgiveness and draw me close again.
