Disposing of Palms: We are to treat all items that are blessed with reverence. This includes: palms, bibles, rosaries, medals, statues, images, icons, and liturgical items.

The practice of the Church has been to dispose of these items in a reverent way when necessary. This can be done in one of two ways. 1) burn the item completely (palms can be brought to the church for disposal if needed) 2) bury items reverently in the ground in a place which will be undisturbed.

Anima Christi

Soul of Christ, sanctify me.
Body of Christ, save me.
Blood of Christ, inebriate me.
Water from the side of Christ, wash me.
Passion of Christ, strengthen me.
O good Jesus, hear me.
Within Thy wounds hide me.
In the hour of my death call me,
And bid me come to Thee.
That, with Thy Saints, I may praise Thee
Forever and Ever. Amen

To Whomever took the two white baskets: Please return them. These baskets are used for the Sacraments of Baptism and First Communion. We miss them. Please return!!

April 12, 2026

Divine Mercy Sunday shows us our need for God's Divine Mercy, offered to us through the Sacrament of Reconciliation for the forgiveness of our sins, and through each celebration of the Sacraments (all instituted to sanctify us), when we receive them in trusting Faith.

In the Psalm we repeat three times, "His mercy endures forever!" God revealed His mercy, first and foremost, by sending His only begotten Son to become our Savior and Lord by His suffering, death and Resurrection. The Gospel vividly reminds us of how Jesus instituted the Sacrament of Reconciliation, a sacrament of Divine Mercy. The risen Lord gave his Apostles the power to forgive sins with the words, "Whose sins you forgive, they are forgiven them, and whose sins you retain, they are retained" (Jn 20:19-23). Presenting the doubting Thomas' famous profession of Faith, "My Lord and my God," Jesus showed his Divine Mercy to the doubting apostle and emphasizes the importance of Faith for everyone. We need to accept God's invitation to celebrate and practice mercy in our Christian lives: One way the Church celebrates God's mercy is through the Holy Mass and the Sacrament of Reconciliation. Finding time for Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament is another good way to receive and give thanks for Divine Mercy. But it is mainly through the corporal and spiritual works of mercy that we practice in our daily lives the Mercy we have received, and, so, become eligible ourselves for God's merciful judgment. Let us ask God for the Faith which culminates in the self-surrender to God that leads us to serve those we encounter with agápe love. Living Faith enables us to see the risen Lord in everyone, and it gives us the willingness to render to each other our loving service. St. Teresa of Calcutta (Mother Teresa) presents it this way: "If we pray, we will believe; if we believe, we will love; if we love, we will serve. Only then we put our love of God into action."
