Saint Gregory the Great Parish
First Reconciliation/First Communion Parent Commitment

> Education in the faith by the parents should begin in the child's earliest years. This already happens when family members help one another to grow in faith by the witness of a Christian life in keeping with the Gospel. Family catechesis precedes, accompanies, and enriches other forms of instruction in the faith.
> — Catechism of the Catholic Church, paragraph 2226

As a Catholic parent, I am resolved to help my child prepare for the Sacraments of Reconciliation (Confession) and Communion (Holy Eucharist) through my prayers, words of encouragement, and personal example.

Specifically, I am committed to ensuring that our family follows the Precepts of the Catholic Church, which set forth the minimum actions to be considered a faithful Catholic:

1. Attend Sunday Mass on a regular basis.
2. Confess sins at least once a year.
3. Receive the sacrament of the Eucharist at least during the Easter season.
4. Observe the days of fasting and abstinence established by the Church.
5. Help to provide for the needs of the Church.

I am also committed to helping my child answer those questions he or she has about the Catholic faith; actively participate in their preparation, lessons, and retreats; and meet all the other requirements of sacrament preparation. If I have questions about the Catholic faith, the sacraments, or the program, I will seek the answers so that my own actions may be a light to my child.

Finally, I will pray for faith and understanding for both myself and my child, that Jesus may find an open and willing heart in which to dwell and make Himself known to the world.
